

1^o Edition EULiST PROFESSIONAL FACULTY DEVELOPMENT WEBINAR SERIES

Promoted by Task Group 3.2 - Innovative
Teaching and Learning Methodologies

When?

Wednesday

April 2 2025 5:00 - 6:30 p.m. (CET)

The first contribution to the program will be held at the General Assembly 2025 @UnivAQ

Who?

Dr. Claudia Migliaccio

(Specialized Master Programmes, Institut Mines-Télécom Nord Europe)

Challenge-based Learning: an active pedagogy in Higher Education:

Let's explore this active teaching and learning pedagogy paradigm, in order to understand what its use could be for university students and teachers.

Where?

Aula Magna – San Basilio Congress Center – L'Aquila (Italy)

Live streaming Youtube

For all EULiST-Universities the recording of the seminar will be available on the LUH platform Stud.IP under working group “EULiST Webinars on Professional Faculty Development”.

About the webinar series

Experts of innovative teaching and learning methodologies share their experiences highlighting achievements and failures.

Workshops and training sessions on specific topics will be offered to support implementing new approaches in every day teaching.

Why Attend?

Inspiring Contributions: join talks and webinars for new perspectives.

Networking: connect with like-minded experts.

Professional Development: expand your skills and improve your teaching methods.

Alessandra Continenza

alessandra.continenza@univaq.it

Francesca Cristaldi

francesca.cristaldi@zuv.uni-hannover.de