

Erasmus+ Blended Intensive Program “Point Clouds for Society: Cultural Heritage, Infrastructure, and Environment”

On-site part: 20 – 27 April 2026

Welcome Day Agenda

Monday, 20 April		National Technical University of Athens – School of Rural, Surveying and Geoinformatics Engineering, Central Amphitheater
09:30 – 09:45	Arrival & Registration
		BIP participants arrival and sign-in, Distribution of materials (program, guidelines)
09:45 – 10:15	Welcome - Opening speeches	Prof. M. Tsakiri, Dean of SRS&GE, NTUA A. Lampropoulou, EULiST NTUA Local Coordinator, Head of NTUA International Relations Department Prof. G. Pantazis, Head of the Laboratory of Geodesy SRS&GE, NTUA
10:15 – 10:45	Coffee Break
10:45 – 11:45	Program Overview	Moderator: Prof. Efi Dimopoulou, SRS&GE, NTUA BIP Scientific Coordinator NTUA, TUW and STU Teaching Staff
		Structure of the BIP onsite project, overview and expected outcomes Project Context & Study Area Introduction to the field site: Monastery of Kynigos (Mount Hymettus) Overview of fieldwork focus - Team Formation & Task Allocation Group Photo
12:00 – 13:00	Lunch at NTUA Restaurant
13:00	Departure for fieldwork	